This is Tony's update from Monday, October 6, 2008. There may be another update on Wednesday.

If you'd like to receive these updates automatically, please contact Tony by e-mail at AJP807 -at- aol.com.

For those new students that are just reading this update, foon1 ying4 a1 (welcome!!!)

Just a reminder that my NEW MONDAY NIGHT Chinese Menu/ Reading and Writing class begins tonight at IS 131 at 100 Hester street. This will be a continuation of my Saturday class but beginners are still welcome. Class is from 6:00-7:00...ask Security for the room.

Hung's Intermediate Cantonese class will follow from 7:00-8:30.

The new Cantonese 101 cycle has begun. Welcome to all of our new as well as our returning students!!!

Kam's NEW Cantonese 103 class also started this past Saturday. Kam wishes to extend her appreciation for such a nice turnout.

David's New Toisan class had it's 2nd session. He's off and rolling to a terrific start but there's still time to join before it gets too intense.

Our apologies to anyone who showed up for Kit's 102 class this past Saturday. Kit was taken ill suddenly and was unable to be there. She's feeling better now.

Mia's Wednesday class is still going strong so try to attend one if you have the time.

I've included the work sheet for tonight's Menu class for those of you who cannot attend but are still interested. Feel free to contact me with and questions.

Remember all of the classes are FREE (any donation appreciated) and any of the classes may be attended at any time. So come on down if you have time. Don't forget to practice your Cantonese and Chinese characters every day.

Feel free to email or call me with questions, comments, trivia or babble. Hope to see you all in class.
